Argus[®] 4 Retractable Lanyard - P7030RL

Introduction

If your Argus[®]4 camera ever falls from your grasp or you have to let go for any reason, the Argus[®]4 retractable lanyard provides you with peace of mind that your thermal camera will always be easily retractable.

The retractable lanyard has a high temperature case and can simply be attached by fitting the scaffold hook to the bottom of the camera to provide an alternative point of storage. It is adjustable, shock absorbing and has an auto-rewind mechanism
